York

South Carolina

Located just 13 miles west of Rock Hill is the town of York, a friendly area that is rich with history and southern charm. Founded in 1785, York serves as the county seat and is known as the “White Rose City” after The War of the Roses in the 1400s in England between the House of Lancaster and the House of York. The York Historic District consists of approximately 180 contributing properties and boasts a large 364-acre National Register Historic District, one of the largest in the state.
