Dilworth

Charlotte, NC

Beloved for its charming bungalows bordered by white picket fences, picturesque Dilworth was Charlotte's first streetcar suburb, which explains why a large portion of the neighborhood is listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Today, block parties, yard sales and festivals pop up in this pedestrian-friendly enclave, seated just minutes from Center City and blocks from South End. Although year-round run clubs, fall pumpkin patches and Christmas tree lots give compact Dilworth its cozy-yet-spirited vibe, much of its character draws on its historical qualities.
